

About Mary Seibold

As a legal nurse consultant and RN, Mary Ann Seibold uses her experience as a healthcare provider and specialized training to consult on medical-related cases. Mary Ann's clinical experience in ICU and medical-surgical nursing has granted her a deep understanding of disease processes, injuries, and medical terminology. With her administrative experience within the insurance industry, she can analyze stacks of medical records easily and cost-effectively.

At Seibold & Associates Consulting Agency, Mary Ann can analyze your medical records, prepare timelines, review audit trails, and more depending on your needs. She will lock down the medical-related issues so you can focus on the law.
